Keeping Up - -

With Uplanders

SERVICE STATION WEEK

Promoters have tabbed this as some kind of "oil week."

We are taking the occasion to give our local service station operators the title of "Upland Salesmen." Usually they are first people visitors see in Upland. They are called upon to give local directions. They are asked a variety of questions about the community.

Tourists from the east frequently ask not only about Upland but also about the southland in general when they stop for gasoline service.

Our service station men, therefore, give far more service than just filling up the tank. They tell countless numbers of people every week about our community. They truly are "our salesmen."

WATER ELECTION

Years ago some people began thinking about the possibility of obtaining the use of Colorado river water here.

That long-sought objective is today a reality, except for certain legal mechanics and structural mechanics.

Most individuals think a long, long time before they buy a huge life insurance policy.

Water through the Metropolitan Water District is like life insurance—very expensive until an emergency and then very, very helpful.

And so we have "water insurance" for the generation to come.

MISSED THE CAKE

Men's service clubs always have their serious objectives but at each week's meeting there is usually the lighter occasions. A little group of Upland Rotarians in on the "know" yesterday must have had a hollow echo to their incident. It was George Haack's "39th" birthday anniversary and a suitable cake was fixed up for him. A lot of effort had been expended to make the "soap cake" look like the real thing.

But George didn't show up.

And by the time it was "officially presented to him he suspected the gag.

WHERE ARE THEY COMING FROM?

More than 400 new houses are to be sold in Upland if the current subdivisions are going to be successful. Some observers are puzzled as to where the people are coming from to fill the Upland houses.

Admittedly, the situation is not so bright as it was six months ago when the projects were definitely planned. Then only a few hundred dollars cash was necessary for the down payment. Today, it takes a good many hundreds of dollars.

Nevertheless, the promoters are not too worried. Most of the buyers of the local houses are expected to come from Kaiser Co. employes and employes in industries in adjacent communities. This is a favored residential community and as such this more than ever will become the "bedroom city" for employes within a radius of 30 miles, more or less.

Of the first four occupants of the West Seventh street subdivision three are "newcomers" and one is a local resident.

Judge Jacobs Busy Issuing Licenses

Many an altar bound couple have been relieved to find that they can get a marriage license in Upland on Saturday or Sunday. Justice of the Peace F. H. Jacobs can issue such licenses at that time, when the county license bureau at San Bernardino is closed.

Latest young people to take advantage of the service, and then to be married on the spot by Judge Jacobs, are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Augustine Holsten. The bride is the former Jeanette Marie Acena of Fallbrook and the bridegroom is from Columbus, Ohio.

Professor Leaves As Mother Passes

Mrs. Lady has spent considerable time in Upland during the past seven years. She is a sister of Mrs. John Engle of Baker avenue.

Mrs. Lady also has a number of grandchildren, nieces and nephews in this vicinity.

Dr. Lady will return to his college duties next Sunday.

Planners O.K. Zone Variance

Approval was given by the city planning commission to a variance in the proposed building of two duplexes on San Bernardino road east of Ninth avenue, this week. A special meeting was called for Monday evening to consider the variance which had been requested.

Dr. A. A. Aita recently sold the lots to A. R. Berggren, who anticipates the construction. The variance was approved with recommendation that if a definite set-back is desired it should be staggered. There will be 920 square feet in each unit of the two duplexes.

While there are no other duplex dwellings in this immediate neighborhood, it is nearly adjacent to a zone where such construction is permitted.

Also approved was a record of survey for a lot on Bowen street sold by H. Marquez for residential building.

Mrs. Charles B. Hansen, 523 West Twenty-fourth street, San Antonio Heights, was admitted to San Antonio hospital last Saturday for medical care.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Black Honored On Golden Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations and good wishes were showered on Dr. and Mrs. Adam W. Black at a reception held Sunday afternoon in the social hall of the First Baptist church of Ontario, where both have been active members for many years.

The occasion marked the golden wedding anniversary of the couple, and receiving with Dr. and Mrs. Black were their two daughters, Mrs. A. S. Harris (Nancy Black) of New Orleans, Louisiana, and Mrs. Harold H. Ely (Ella Black) of Santa Ana.

Decorating the hall were potted palms and two sets of gold candelabra holding white candles. Two tall gold floor vases filled with large white chraysanthemums, and beautiful bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, gifts from friends, added further decoration.

H. W. Swinney, master of ceremonies, presented the honored couple with a handsome mahogany table with tooled leather top, a gift from the members of the church and other friends. A short program of music was given, and brief talks were made by former pastors of the church, Dr. Earl Smith of San Francisco, the Rev. Merrill Jensen of Long Beach, and the present pastor, the Rev. Earle Riley.

Receiving guests as they arrived were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schroeder, and in charge of gifts were Mrs. H. R. Molter and Richard Ely, grandson of the honorees.

The refreshment table was set with a gold metallic cloth and gold appointments. Mrs. Harley Jackson cut and served the cake, assisted by Miss Nancy Joan Ely, granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Black, and Mrs. Kenneth Bechtol.

Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. E. W. Whitehouse, Mrs. H. W. Swinney and Mrs. Fred Jacobs, and serving punch were Mrs. W. B. Thomas and Mrs. Harley Estabrook.

Miss Rose Wershing and Miss Winnie Catherall had charge of the guest book.

Dr. and Mrs. Black were married in Glasgow, Scotland, October 15, 1901. They came to British 9Columbia, Canada, in 1913, and from there moved to Los Angeles in 1919. They have made their home in Upland since 1921. Dr. Black is still a practicing chiropractor, while Mrs. Black retired only a few years ago.

Chamber Begins New Year With Enthusiasm

Evidence that Upland chamber of commerce will not rest on past laurels even though there are some to which they may point with pride, was seen at the annual meeting Tuesday night. More than 100 members, their ladies and friends gathered at the Woman's club to greet the new president, Bob Frady, and to applaud past president Walter Holts.

Professor Wesley Harmon of Chaffey college summed up world affairs as they affect the individual in his address on "The Dilemma of World Affairs". He was introduced by F. C. d'Artenay.

"We are living in a false economy for which there must be a day of reckoning," the speaker said, in summing up the reasons behind war, inflation, and all the attendant dilemma in which the world at large, and the United States in particular, finds itself today.

Quickly and concisely, Professor Harmon drew for his audience a brilliant word picture of the world through the ages, from a beginning of national stability and individualism among nations, to a condition of inter-dependence of countries, one upon the other.

In Europe 22 divisions were established, each with a spirit of nationalism, self sufficient enough to control their own economy.

Meanwhile, the United States had formed, from colonial be-

Junior High In 20-2 Victory

Upland's Red Raiders defeated Webb school yesterday afternoon 20 to 2 with spectacular plays featuring the local eleven's scoring.

On the first offensive play halfback Charles Flores went right end for a 55-yard touchdown run. A field goal added the extra point.

A 45-yard pass from Flores to right end Raoul Molinar set up the second score. Paul Fish, fullback, advanced the ball 30 yards on a plunge through center and Flores pushed it over from the eight yard line.

Gish picked up another touchdown in a 40-yard run through the center of the line and the extra point came on a pass from Flores to end Ronald Rose.

Lester Nagler, junior high school coach, will send his squad to Chino to meet the California Junior Republic next Thursday.

Easterners Like Euclid, City, Climate and Their Host

New Yorkers are going to hear about Euclid avenue, Upland and this city's "shirt-sleeve" climate.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Deverts will carry the good tidings to the eastern metropolitan area after visiting here and in the southland with his brother, Charles Deverts, local mailman. The host is a good one to entertain easterners because he knows all about the city and he has been here long enough to give all the details.

As to his brother, he is in the steel business and he and his wife were on their first visit in the southland. They visited their daughter in San Diego and will include a glimpse of Yosemite before returning to the frigid climate on the eastern seaboard.

Dewey To Desert To Attend Legion Event

O'er Top Goal In Chest Drive As Rotary Leads

Moving well into its first week the campaign for funds for the Community Chest is well on its way. A count is being withheld until Mrs. Hazel Cassell, secretary, returns from San Francisco. The quota which must be reached if Upland is to have the benefits which past experience has proved are needed is $8000.

Rotarians, who are sponsoring the drive this year, have been making a canvass of business firms and residential areas by precincts, adding to money which came in early from a campaign by letter to regular givers.

Twenty prominent local organizations are lending their support to the Rotarians during the drive in a concerted effort to go over the top before the end of the month. The drive will end officially November 15, one month following its inception.

The goal of $8000 was set after a careful study of expenditures in the past showed certain budgets necessary for the coming year. To benefit are Girl and Boy Scouts, the sick baby fund which provides care for all infants and small children in the community, through San Antonio Community hospital; the dental clinic, rheumatic heart clinic, children's hospital, and camper's committee. Operation and overhead also were included.

Originally $8500 was set as the fund to be raised, but $500 of this amount was forthcoming from accrued monies from special gifts throughout the year.

Paul Hottell, general solicitation chairman, is assisted by Dan Maher, in charge of industrial and institutional donations, and Walter Holts, responsible for contributions from business and professional people. They urge donors to get contributions in without delay.

Don Palmer is precinct captain assisted by the following team of captains: Glenn Thompson, Merle Rash, Don Adams, Bob Frady, Harry Wright, Ellery Wright, Bob Allen, Jesse Jensen, Neal Van Dorin, Frank Marino, Paul Lucas, Bill Beard, and John Baumgartner. Ed Hansen is in charge of the San Antonio Heights district.

Mr. Clifford wrote the police department that the courteous and pleasant manner of Officer Felix Quesada was responsible for his attitude of appreciation.

"Country Fair" Planned As School Benefit

"Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!"

To raise funds for a moving picture projector the Upland Parent-Teacher association will sponsor a gala country fair Friday, Oct. 27, from 4 to 8 p.m. at Upland park. The pre-Halloween event calls for jeans and calico, and is open to the public for young and old.

Advertising its attractions are bright posters, the work of Mrs. Lyle Amberson and Miss Winona Boyle. These are being placed at vantage points throughout the community to tell everyone of the funfest.

Mrs. Walter Stewart, budget and finance chairman, is being assisted as general chairman by Mrs. Harry Gardner.

"Play Way" Planned

The park will be turned into a gaily lighted carnival, with "playway," as the amusement zone will be called, offering games of skill for prizes. Mrs. Lowell Bartlett is managing this.

The cake walk, under direction of Miss Florence Armstrong, will afford opportunity to win a delicious home made cake.

Local gardeners will find their opportunity to buy seeds and plants in the garden shop, presided over by Mrs. Rollin Lemon and committee.

The country store, arranged by Mrs. Max Werden, and Martha's Merchant mart will be filled with articles for early Christmas shoppers. Mrs. Werden will be in charge of the former, and Mrs. John Luther, the mart.

The Sierra Vista school will have a taco booth in cooperation with the Upland association.

There also will be hot dogs, prepared by Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Calhoun; a beauty shop, with Mesdames Robert Thrall and Ed Behm in charge; and a fun house, under direction of Esther Ziegler.

Orange juice will be served by Mrs. Allen Mitchell, Jr., and cake and pie, by the slice, by Mrs. Arthur Storms.

A popular game of skill will award live gold fish to those who are able to throw ping-pong balls into the bowl. Mrs. Curtis Lee will superintend.

As the time draws near several other pastimes are being considered to make this the outstanding money-making event in the P.T.A's annals.

Metropolitan Water Vote Is Decisive Here

Use of Colorado river water in this area is a certainty today following the overwhelming approval of the question in Tuesday's election.

The vote was 6,243 "yes" and 654 "no" to the proposal of whether the Chino basin municipal water district should join the Metropolitan Water district. Actual membership is scheduled to be effective Dec. 1.

In Upland and throughout other parts of the district, voters gave an affirmative answer of about 10 to 1. . The Upland vote was 1,013 "yes" and 106 "no". The Ontario vote was 2,772 "yes" and 137 "no". In the Fontana area the decisive total was 2,113 in favor and 368 opposed.

Official tabulation of returns is the first order of business but establishment of an office in Ontario is being tentatively planned.

Major Philip Hasbrouck and Richard C. Wolfe are the Fontana representatives. Mayor E. W. Soper represents Chino.

Otto S. Roen, president of the district's board of directors, said prior to the voting that an office location will be leased in Ontario and from that point the district business will be conducted. Construction of distribution lines from the main line aqueduct to points where the water can be used is planned as one of the early undertakings. Directors of the Metropolitan Water district have agreed to allocate $360,000 for use in constructing the distribution lines.

By the vote Tuesday local residents placed upon themselves a debt of $5,405,100 as the local district's share in repaying the original cost of constructing the aqueduct plus interest. This sum is to be paid over a period of 30 years and it will mean a tax rate increase. Total tax rate boost is estimated at about 60 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation.

The Tuesday election returns will be analyzed at a special meeting of the Chino district board of directors meeting in Fontana Monday.

Albert C. Reynolds is the Upland representative on the board. Mr. Roen is the Ontario representative although he serves as executive director of the Upland Housing authority.

And, of course, that also is the date of the Country Fair given by Upland P.-T. A.

Give to the community chest.

Judy Jean Lowther, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Lowther, 215 Parkside, returned home Tuesday after receiving medical care at San Antonio hospital.

DAY BY THE OCEAN

By Ernest A. Dart

I walked by the side of the ocean
In the cool of a midsummer day;
And watched the billows breaking,
Tossing their silver spray.

As I stood by the side of the ocean,
Where the great tides ebb and flow,
It looked like a sheet of shining glass
In the sunset's golden glow.

I thought as I sat by the ocean
Of the man at the lighthouse post,
Guiding the vessels safely
Around the rock-bound coast.

When night fell over the ocean,
I could hear the fog-horn roar,
Warning the ships at sea
Of dangers along the shore.

I watched as I stayed by the ocean
Myriads of birds at feed;
With a great God over all
Supplying their every need.

As I stayed by the beautiful ocean,
Breathing the cool, fresh air,
There came a conscious feeling
That Nature's God was there.

'Twas a wonderful day by the ocean;
Where the billows toss and foam;
It is good to be back in the valley;
The valley, and home sweet home.

Taxes are not easy to pay but they represent insurance against Communist domination of this country.

This is community chest time.

Practice
FIRE PREVENTION

Prevent fires at home by clearing out castoff articles in your closets, cellar and attic. You probably are keeping many burnable odds and ends that are really useless to you. Don't let them make your home a fire hazard. If your local welfare agencies can't use them, call the junk man. Plain ordinary good housekeeping is the best defense against accidental fires that might endanger your life and property. You can get additional training in home fire prevention through your local civil defense organization.

Firemen Answer; Damage Averted

No serious damage resulted in three fires which brought out Upland firemen during the past week, although the potentialities in two cases were serious.

Last Friday, Oct. 12, at Jan's Drive-in, a leak in a pan used for deep fat frying allowed seepage of fat into the gas burner. Owners Isabelle Testa and Louise Kear called for help, and the fire was quickly extinguished. The only loss was the fat.

An overheated electric water heater Oct. 14, at 1390 West Fifteenth street, brought firemen, who discovered that what seemed to be smoke was only steam. The trouble was eradicated before fire resulted.

Carl M. Lewis of 650 N. Third avenue called firemen to extinguish a fire in his 1942 De Soto sedan. A short in the motor wiring was the cause of this $25 loss which was covered by insurance.

ginnings, to a country with 48 different divisions. Its difference lay in the fact that it offered a variety of natural resources which other countries of the world could not match.

Professor Harmon explained that over population of certain areas without enough food or materials to supply the demand naturally led to wars as those nations became aggressors attempting to take care of their own needs.

He scored the Versailles treaty which followed the old adage "to the voctor belongs the spoils", stating that treatment of Germany, while understandable, could lead only to her eventual uprising again.

"In contrast, we have treated Japan with consideration unheard of, wisely trying to help her onto her feet, so that she can take care of her hordes of population," according to the speaker.

"We have awakened, in determining to have a League of Nations."

He then went on to trace reasons for the dilemma in which the United States finds itself within its own borders, particularly in our policy of saying to other nations, "We will loan you the money to buy our goods."

"Our wealth, based upon highest salaries and highest prices, is false," he said. "Our economy some day has got to break. When other nations get independent of us we will be unable to compete. They can produce cheaper than we can."

Speaking of the immediate future he said that if we have war there will be prosperity, in a sense, but that the majority of scholars do not look for it, but expect instead a continuation of the cold wars.

He predicted that building will remain at a high peak for many years, and that after a brief period of shortages the United States will enjoy a boom of prosperity. Sixty-five millions will be working, many for the first time, and will be expending a huge pay roll on consumption of goods.

"Even high taxes will not take up the difference in present and future buying power," he said.

"But some time there must be a reckoning."

President Frady spoke briefly to the audience, pledging that he would serve to the best of his ability, and calling for full cooperation of the membership. He admitted that finances are a first problem, and asked that all members point out to the board of directors things they can do for Upland.

He pledged a continuation of the beautification program for which Mrs. Dorothy Gardner was highly complimented.

Dinner tables were beautifully decorated with clusters of grapes in shades of deep purple and pale green; with arrangements of multi-colored dahlias adding beauty to the foyer and reception room.

Veteran Named Patrol Instructor

Appointment of Kenneth Dell, of Upland, as assistant training officer of the Old Baldy Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol has been announced. Another Upland man, George Adams, is training officer. Dell is a veteran of four years service in the training department of the air force.

At a recent meeting Mrs. Opal Jeske of Ontario gave instruction in Morse code. Senior members heard the story of the origin and organization of the civil air patrol from Lt. Marie Oliva, Monrovia, squadron adjutant.

Lt. Ralph Alexander, Rialto, commanding officer of the unit, announced a simulated search mission for the squadron to be held Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 17 and 18. The U. S. air force will supply the gasoline and oil used by the planes on this project. Cadets will be allowed to fly as observers.

Staff positions are open for persons interested in journalism and photography. Polaroid camera owners especially are desired. Interested persons should contact Cable-Claremont airport, Upland.

The Community Methodist church of Cucamonga will hold its second annual homecoming at the church Sunday, according to Raymond L. Wirth.

Former pastors and members throughout California have been extended special invitations. The day's program will begin at 10 a.m. with the regular church school and morning worship. At the 11:00 o'clock service, Mrs. Jack Beattie, a former member of the church, will bring special music. The morning services will be followed with a potluck dinner on the church grounds.

At 2:30 p.m., the Rev. J. W. Grande, who is now pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church in Temple City, will be the speaker. Rev. Grande served the pastorate of the Cucamonga church in 1932. All local friends and former members of the church are especially urged to attend this service.

Events for the day have been planned by a committee consisting of Mrs. Ray Lawyer, chairman, assisted by Arthur Fies, Mrs. W. H. Powelson, Mrs. Marvin Wangler and Miss Harriet Wilson.

Visitor to Japan Tells Lions Of Conditions There

While Japan is making a rapid recovery, the slum and other crowded living conditions make life difficult for the Orientals, Royce Saltzman told Upland Lions club members Thursday.

As one of a team of three men from Brethren in Christ church, Mr. Saltzman is back from a six-weeks tour of Japan. The team members visited many parts of the country. While he had an optimistic report of progress, he emphasized the great need for more leadership.

Peter Willms and Gordon Johnson are other members of the team in Japan. Abner Haldeman served as program chairman and President Clinton Thompson was in charge.

Atonement is Topic At Science Church

"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new". This selection from II Corinthians is the golden text of the Sunday lesson-sermon on "Doctrine of Atonement" in the Ontario Christian Science church, 636 North Euclid avenue, Ontario.

Girl From Honduras Selects Upland College for Studies

Her name is Juana Ondina Hinson; she is 17 years of age and is 2000 miles from home. Juana is a student at Upland college, who came all the way from Honduras, Central America, to learn how to be a good secretary.

When she has finished her courses she plans to return to her homeland, or possibly to go to Hawaii, where her godfather, Joseph H. Galloway, is in business.

Juana hopes that her mother, Haydee (accent over the last e), Melva de Hinson will join her before too long, but she anticipates staying in this country for six years. She also has a brother, Ernesto Claudio, two years older than she.

Likes Upland

Juana likes Upland, she explained in excellent English. She finds the weather much like home for this time of year. It rains a great deal there in November, she said.

Questioned as to why she is ready for college at 17 she explained that in her country children have much more to learn in a shorter length of time, their entire education, through high school, comprising six years. Many of them, however, fail in their studies and have to repeat.

The diminutive girl said that illness caused her to miss three years of school, which she started when she was six or seven.

She admitted without words that there is a boy friend at home, but that he works, and has no time for classes in the United States. Boys find life a serious business when they finish high school, but girls and boys both have equal chances for employment, she said.

Public schools are divided, some for boys and some for girls, but both go to co-educational private schools.

There are many very poor people, and some very rich ones in Honduras, said Juana, but both classes mingle in the same public schools, which are extremely democratic.

President of Honduras is Carlos Manuel Galvez. The country depends mostly upon its exports of oranges, bananas and cocoanuts.

Dorothy McEncroe Becomes Bride of Ronald Hohnbeen in Church Rites

Miss Dorothy L. McEncroe became Mrs. Ronald G. Hohnsbeen in a ceremony held October 6 in St. George's Catholic church, Ontario. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McEncroe, 1100 North Euclid avenue, Upland.

In a beautiful service held on Saturday, October 6, at 4 p.m. in St. George's Catholic church, Ontario, Miss Dorothy Lorraine McEncroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McEncroe, 1100 North Euclid avenue, exchanged wedding vows with Ronald G. Hohnsbeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hohnsbeen, 6317 Lomitas drive, South Pasadena.

Monsignor John J. Hegarty performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives of the couple.

Preceding the nuptial rites, Earle S. Blakeslee gave an organ prelude of sacred music, and played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride was attired in a white knitted suit, with wine colored hat and accessories, accented by an orchid corsage.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Genevieve McEncroe, who wore a white knitted suit with green accessories, and a corsage of gold pompon chrysanthemums.

Ward Howland of Orange served the bridegroom as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was held at Mission Inn, Riverside, for the immediate families.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, and they expect to make their home in the San Francisco area.

The new Mrs. Hohnsbeen, who has resided here just over a year, is a graduate of Northwestern university, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Her husband is a graduate of Loyola university.

cing and movies are favorite entertainment in Honduras.

Juana arrived Sept. 19 by plane, and was met by a representative of Brown's school. She entered Upland college well fortified with a satisfactory number of English words, a ready smile, and charming manner.

Her ambitions, she admitted, are high. She would be happy to be someone's private secretary some day.

Report Out For Chamber Effort

High commendation was given to Mrs. Alfred J. Hilde, secretary of Upland chamber of commerce, by incoming president Bob Frady, last Tuesday night. He called attention of members to the manner in which she is handling business in the office, and to the wide variety of services which she extends to the public.

A report for August was issued to all members this week showing 191 pieces of literature issued; 80 maps, 220 individual office calls, 183 phone calls, incoming, and 56 outgoing; 213 pieces of mail handled, incoming, and 68 outgoing. Thirty voters were registered.

Everything is asked of the chamber of commerce secretary, as the office is used as a clearing house for problems of visitors and members of the community.

Where to fish in Mexico, where to go and what to do, possibilities of work, seasonal in different areas of the state, assistance in securing of rentals, information on the Boulder dam, and how to get in touch with a baby sitter were some of the questions asked.

Someone wanted to know what identification is necessary to enter Canada on a vacation tour, and someone else the location of the nearest public golf course.

We Can Give Blood To Help Those Who Fight For Us

Our soldiers in Korea are not there by choice. An impelling force either attracted them or a letter from Uncle Sam directed them to get into uniform. And so they are on the front line; not for their own interests but ours.

All of us are not in agreement as to how this war is being conducted but the fact remains our relatives and our friends' relatives are in the line of bullets.

When we give our blood Oct. 30 at the Red Cross mobile unit we will be thinking of "John" and of "Mason."—maybe my blood will help save them. Those two fellows are very close to me but there are "Bill" and "Bob" and "Ted" who are sons of Upland families there in Korea.

Surely the least we can do is to give a pint of blood to help save those fine fellows.

We would hate to admit to them local people were so unconcerned the blood bank quota was not met. It will be lacking if YOU don't VOLUNTEER to give your blood. Please make an appointment NOW at the Red Cross headquarters.

If No Oil, There Are Squeaks; Courtesy Is Big Help

Occasionally, the Upland police department receives letters of commendation from motorists who have been stopped for some alleged law violation.

The letters are not "thank you" notes for the arrest. Instead they are expressions from southland citizens commending Upland on having such capable and courteous policemen.

While the local officers are very worthy of the commendations, purpose of this editorial expression is to emphasize the importance of courtesy. Human relations sometimes occur under trying circumstances and when policemen can arrest a person and do it so nicely the victim is moved to write about it that indeed is an outstanding example of courtesy.

Courtesy is something that can be used every hour of every day and not just in emergencies. Your milkman, your mailman, your service station attendant and even store clerks appreciate an attitude of courtesy and consideration.

Machines have to be oiled constantly. Courtesy is like oil.

Without oil there are squeaks.
Without courtesy there are squawks.

Printing of City Legals By Councilman Explained

A few people during the last year have personally questioned us about the right of a city councilman to publish city legals in his newspaper. And now comes, in an envelope, a newspaper clipping about the recent indictment of a Los Angeles school board member on charges of "voting for public contracts to firms in which he had a personal interest." Apparently, there are others concerned about the situation and we, therefore, make a public explanation.

As to the right of a councilman-publisher printing city legals there is no question. Through the years it has been an accepted practice in cities up and down the state. Legally, it has been approved by private and public attorneys, including counsel for the California League of Municipalities.

That is, it is legal when there is only one legally-constituted newspaper within a city. Municipal legal notices must be published within the city and so under the circumstances City of Upland legal notices must be published in The Upland News.

Incidentally, a "legal rate" is set from time to time by the county board of supervisors—and the rate charged the city by The News is below the established rate. Also, incidentally, The Herald Printing Co., under the same ownership as The News, formerly served the city but that was discontinued following the 1950 city election.

Time Passes

25 Years Ago

The cornerstone of the new Upland Woman's club house was laid.

J. W. Shepperson, retired newspaper man, who had purchased the Paul place on North Euclid avenue, had arrived here from Canada with his family.

Mrs. Walter F. Tyler entertained the Pioneer Embroidery club at her home on Sixteenth street.

Miss Elizabeth Lemon, a sophomore at Pomona college, and Miss Rhoda Widmer, a junior, were elected as members of the Pomona college women's glee club.

10 Years Ago

Henry Dybsand and U. S. Standlea left for Richfield, Utah, to spend a few days deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foronda became the parents of a son, born October 16 at San Antonio Community hospital.

James Horak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Horak, claimed as his bride, Miss Helen Irene Harford of Glendale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Harford of Chino.

Dr. W. R. Farmer and C. C. Blakeslee returned from San Francisco, where they represented the district and the Upland lodge at the Masonic Grand lodge.

Furnishings for one of the rooms in the new wing of San Antonio Community hospital were given by Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge as a memorial to her husband, Tyler Reed Woodbridge.

It takes only a second for an accident to occur. A second spent may mean a life saved. Drive carefully.

Long-Time Resident Of Cucamonga Dies

Funeral mass was celebrated Tuesday morning at the Catholic Church of S. Secondo d'Asti for Gaetana Lizio Finocciaro, 78, wife of Arazio Finocciaro, who died Saturday at the family home, 128 Acacia street, Cucamonga, following a two years' illness.

A native of Italy, Mrs. Finocciaro came to the Cucamonga district 37 years ago. Surviving besides the husband are two daughters, Mrs. Gregorio Patane and Mrs. Anthony Grecco; a son, Ralph Finocciaro; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, all of Cucamonga.

The Rev. Louis Conti officiated at the last rites, and interment followed in Bellevue cemetery.

Rhyme and Reason

By Louise Meteer

The end of the day is the nicest time
To sit in the dusk and think, in rhyme.
The little things; how big they seem
Encompassed deep in the human dream.
Till, dreaming of them, the spirit sings:
"There's Rhyme and Reason in all these things."

This is an introduction of Rhyme and Reason to the community of Upland. It is not a pretentious column. In it you will find no comment pointing the way to a solution of world affairs.

It is, rather, an attempt to find the significance in the simple little things in every day living: love of home and children; reminiscences of Yesterday; and a report on the humor and pathos that make up Today.

The column will be local at times; universal in its appeal, always. As it continues, it may be that you, the reader, will have ideas, or memories, that you would like to see, in Rhyme and Reason. Send them in, or better yet, come in and get acquainted.

Through 10 years of writing this column it has been found that there is no appeal so great as that of simple things. What, for instance, do you best remember?

The tilt of your mother's smile; the strength of your father's hand; the glint of your sister's hair in the sunshine; the smell of pop corn, or chestnuts, roasting, in the wagon on the corner. The pink goodness of strawberry ice cream, dripping from the dasher on a summer's day; your own lagging footsteps the day you fell and got a hole in the knee of your long, black cotton stockings; the way your knickers sagged on one leg, as you begged for long pants; these are the things it is fun to remember.

JUST SIMPLE THINGS

Give me the simple things, for mine;
You take the glass of reddened wine.
For me, the cold, sweet spring
I knew when young; not anything
Can quite compare with bare feet on the grass,
The lowing of the cows that pass,
And we two, hand in hand.
So sweet to know you understand.
The simple things are wealth beyond compare;
A little room, beyond the turning stair
Where children sleep the precious night away
And awake, with us, to meet the coming day.
No greater wealth can any man possess.
These simple things add up to happiness.

Civil Service Jobs Open Nearby Areas

Of interest to Uplanders is an announcement of county job openings in police work, stenography and civil engineering, as announced by the civil service commission.

Deputy sheriff vacancies exist at Victorville and San Bernardino. Starting salary is $232 with a $311 top. Stenographic openings in San Bernardino carrying a starting salary of $190 with a $244 top are available.

Engineering vacancies are open in field, office and laboratory work.

Further information may be secured from the county personnel office at 236 Third street, San Bernardino.

Chaffey plunge can pump up to 325,000 gallons of water every eight hours.

A small patient at the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles is being made ready for deep x-ray therapy by a hospital technician. Childrens hospital, a local community chest agency, is this year celebrating its 50th year of continuous service to sick and crippled children of the Southwest. One Upland child needed, and received treatment there last year.

Youthful Artists Honor Firemen

Sierra Vista fourth graders took fire prevention week seriously, according to Fire Chief Howard C. Paulin, who is proudly displaying the youngsters' posters which they presented to him.

The chief had gone to the school to speak to various rooms on fire prevention. He was met by John Marin's class with a deluge of posters on which they were working. At his suggestion the children voted for the best, and they have been placed on the wall at the fire house.

Winners of the contest were Susan Jones and Jo Ann Keyes, with Marcia Penhollow, Fred Bachman, Tommy Ackerson and Kenny Smith as runners-up.

Tests For Police Vacancies Scheduled

Examinations for prospective members of the Upland police department will be held in the city hall Nov. 7, Police Chief Ralph H. Palmer announced yesterday. Final date for applying is Nov. 5. Appointments will be made as vacancies occur on the basis of the test results.

Following are the minimum qualifications: 21 to 35 years of age, education equivalent to that represented by high school graduation, medical and physical fitness, and aptitude for police work and ability to meet the public.

Beginning pay is $253.55 a month, plus $10 a month clothing allowance.

Public Invited To Hospital Open House

All interested persons are invited to attend open house at the Pitzer home at Pomona Valley Community hospital on Sunday afternoon, October 22, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Funds for this new 60-bed convalescent home were donated by Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Pitzer.

Business Women Honor Nations; Open Season

International relations night Thursday, at the Business and Professional Woman's club marked a return to the fall season's more formal meetings after a summer of picnicking. The Upland Woman's clubhouse was the setting for the colorful affair which members attended in costumes significant of their own native family background.

Mrs. Una Winter, international relations chairman, had arranged the entire session around her subject, even to the menu. Food served, starting with French onion soup and ending with Spanish creme, Norwegian jelly drops and Ceylon tea, was all significant.

Mrs. Winter herself represented the adopted motherland of America, dressed in a rose sprigged challis colonial dress with Martha Washington wig.

Each member was asked to read a current event of international interest.

Mrs. Winter reminisced on the early days of Upland, telling of the presence of a colony of Koreans in 1904, who came to this area to pick fruit. Her remarks introduced Mrs. Douglas Black, who gave a review of the book, "The Grass Roof" by Yun Hil Kang, noted Korean scholar. She told of his arrival in the United States with $4 in American money, his eventual rise as a student at Boston and Harvard universities, and his arrival as a teacher in New York University.

The book offered an insight into the nature, customs and traditions of the Korean people, in a first hand description of the author's own family.

Miss Ethel Jean Wilson, dressed as "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," sang "The Key" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. She was accompanied by Mrs. George Cassell.

Mrs. Winter in presenting this number, recalled that Mrs. Bond, the noted composer, once appeared before the Upland Woman's club as a composer, for a fee of $25.

The entire group sang "Columbia," and, as a tribute to King George, and Great Britain, "God Save Our King."

During the business session announcement was made of the board meeting at the home of Mrs. Merle Rash, 945 North Second avenue.

Miss Frances Barks presided over the meeting as president.

Valley Players In 'Drunkard'

Local little theater enthusiasts are enjoying a departure from the usual type of production in the Valley Community theater's production of "The Drunkard". Olio acts and skits with old-time flavor comprise the presentation which opened Wednesday night at the Woman's club at Claremont.

Pomona businessmen form the personnel for a quartet giving a heart-rending interpretation of "You Made Me What I Am Today," and other tear-jerkers.

The Fish Ballet is danced by Doje Dictol; and Eleanor Saffell of Chino sings. Pantomiming of old-time tin-type photos is an amusing feature, and as a finale old songs are flashed on the screen so that the audience may participate.

Leading feminine role is portrayed by Mrs. Howard Keiser of Claremont.

Upland thespians who enjoy participation in Valley Community theater productions from time to time include Frank Marino, local attorney, formerly president of the organization; Mrs. Marino; Steve Vaughn, Colborn's, publicity, and Peggy Webster, an employe of the Upland Bank of America.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, or may be reserved by telephoning Mrs. Jean Westergaard, Lycoming 5-1531.

Visit To Oregon One Of Sadness When Relative Passes

Illness of two relatives, and the loss of one saddened the recent trip made by Mrs. Mary J. Rae to Oregon. Mrs. Rae returned to her home, 404½ North Ninth avenue last week.

Her cousin, Mrs. Nan B. Johnson of Vernonia, near Portland, was seriously ill while Mrs. Rae was visiting Mrs. Johnson's brother, Will Tipton, at Grant's Pass. The visitor hastened to her cousin's beside.

Shortly following her arrival there Mr. Tipton was taken suddenly ill and passed away. Mrs. Johnson, meantime, has recovered.

S.A.Heights

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Friesen, 1161 Myrtle drive, had as their guests over the weekend Mrs. Marion Kliwer of Bellingham, Wash. She is the sister of Mrs. Friesen. She will be in Southern California two weeks, spending most of the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Linscheid of Los Angeles.

Spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Connor, 2516 North Mountain avenue, is Sherry and Kit Keith from Venice. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Keith. Mrs. Keith is the former Lois O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kurtz, 125 West Twenty-fifth street, left on a vacation trip to Pennsylvania Sunday evening. They left by auto and are planning on visiting friends and relatives. They plan on being gone about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Jow Meyerhoven of Detroit, Mich., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Post, 180 West Twenty-fifth street. The Meyerhovens, old-time friends of the Posts, are planning on spending about two months in California. While they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Post, they enjoyed a trip to Capistrano and Tijuana, Mexico.

Rally Daay at Bethany Union was a great success as 115 ppeople turned out for it Sunday morning. The event was greatly publicized and it proved to be a very interesting program. Special guests for the day were the Kings Envoys, a male quartet from Pacific Bible College in Azusa. The group gave several object lessons from magic and various sacred numbers. Afterwards everyone went down to the Church social hall for a fellowship dinner, where the quartet again sang some songs.

Services Held For Bess Adams Garner Of Claremont

Last rites were held Monday morning at the Todd Memorial chapel for Mrs. Bess Adams Garner, 64, who died Friday night at her Claremont home, following a long illness.

She was the sister of Paul Adams of Cucamonga and C. Donald Adams, Upland.

Mrs. Garner, the author of two books, was widely known for her interest in early California history, especially in its Mexican heritage. Her work in this regard included several trips to Old Mexico, being responsible for the now-famous Mexican programs at Padua Hills theater.

Baseball Dinner Honors Boy Team

Proud possessors of miniature baseballs are 14 boys honored last night by American Legion Post 73. The team received a trophy for its triumphs as champions and was given a gala send-off by the Legionnaires, and Ellery Wright, Upland Ford dealer, who furnished their suits and helped to sponsor them.

Kenneth Smith, who was to have been chairman of the event, could not attend. He underwent surgery earlier in the week at San Antonio Community hospital, but sent word that he soon will be back in the cheering section.

Ted Miller, manager of the team, and adjutant of the Post, presided as emcee. Speakers who gave the boys a thrill with first-hand accounts of what it takes to be league material were Gordon Goldsbury, who has just finished a season with the Seattle Rainiers as first baseman, and Bill Abernathie of Fontana, recently signed by the Cleveland Indians.

Boys honored were Louis Hoyos, Stanley Evers, Richard Zuccato, Loren Sanchez, Roger Heinauer, Joe Adams, R. Fowlkes, Charlei Flores, Joe Bruce, Joe Agapay, Marcus King, Eugene Anguiano, Sammy Crowe and David Farmer.

Valencia Oranges In Demand For Week

Demand for Southern California valencia oranges was strong during the week ending Oct. 13. Sales were slightly ahead of those of the previous week, with the f.o.b. average holding firm at the level of the past few weeks.

The Orange Administrative committee increased the established 1000 car prorate for the current week by 200 cars and set the prorate for the week ending Oct. 20 at 1000 cars, subject to increase should conditions justify.

There were indications that only about 1700 to 1800 cars of southern valencias might be left for shipment under regulation after Nov. 3.

The California lemon market continued slow during the week ending Oct. 13. Sales were about in line with those of the previous week, the f.o.b. average declining approximately 25 cents a box.

When an atomic attack comes it will not be our decision. But what we decide today about Civil Defense will determine our defeat or our ability to get up from the dust and rubble and fight back.

Bus Drivers Fully Responsible

Formation of a safety council of Chaffey bus drivers has been announced following a meeting at the student union Oct. 11. Chief of Police Ralph Palmer represented Upland.

Harry Powell, Russell Richardson, Delbert Wiens, and David Ranney were elected by the drivers to form a safety council to aid the drivers in promoting safety education.

Responsibility of the school bus drivers in the safety of the students was the theme of discussion by speakers. Officer Dale Pence, California highway patrol described the use of the new flash-o-lites recently installed on all school buses and answered questions on traffic laws in response to numerous queries from the men.

Herbert Sweeney, Ontario chief of police, discussed the efforts which are being made to alleviate the traffic congestion at the corner of Fourth and Euclid. H. B. Moore, insurance representative, emphasized the responsibility of the bus drivers.

Supt. Daniel B. Milliken stated: "The meeting pointed out in no uncertain terms that the moral responsibility for the lives of our students is directly in the hands of the Chaffey bus drivers."

During September 1709 students were carried on the buses of the school bus fleet. Fifty drivers and trainees are hired by the school, all of whom must have passed their chauffeurs' and bus drivers' tests with the state highway patrol and their physical examinations. They also must have enrolled in or have passed first aid training.

Refresher Course In Square Dancing Open

In answer to many requests from people who have dropped from the activity of square dancing, the seven Square Dance associations and Callers association of Southern California, with the aid of boards of education and recreation departments of various cities, have arranged to stage an all-free refresher course.

This will be a condensed three-lesson course which will quickly bring the people back to their former dancing ability.

In the Upland, Ontario, Pomona areas, the facility is to be Washington Park club house, 865 East Grand avenue, Pomona. Lessons are from 8 to 11 p.m., on Monday, October 29; Thursday, November 1, and Wednesday, November 7. Callers are donating their services.

Nutrition Help In Lecture Series

First in a series of lectures on nutrition attracted home makers to the Merton Hill auditorium at Chaffey Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock under direction of Michael J. Walsh. Speaker was Dr. Joseph C. Risser, orthopedic surgeon of Pasadena, who illustrated correct posture with colored slides, and showed corrective exercises.

Mr. Walsh holds the degrees of bachelor and master of science with biochemistry majors, from University of Dublin. He was appointed Fellow of the Royal Institute of Chemistry of London, and also is a member of the American Institute of Chemical engineers.

Topics for the series include functions of essential nutrients, quantities of nutrients needed for modern living; and appropriate diets for maintaining total health and well being for modern living in the semitropical environs such as Southern California.

What we do now about Civil Defense WILL determine whether we survive an atomic attack if and when it comes.

People have asked... "Oil Progress? Should that mean something to me?"

The oil companies of America are now observing Oil Progress Week. Some people outside the industry have asked, "Oil Progress? Should that mean something to me?"

The answer is "Yes, indeed!"—for oil progress directly affects the lives of all Americans, and the rest of the civilized world as well. One indication of the strides the industry has made is a count of its products. Fifty years ago, we were getting only about a dozen different products out of crude oil. Now Standard produces more than 1100. What we ourselves produce, plus what's made with the help of products we provide, adds up to a seemingly endless list of things that make your life better.

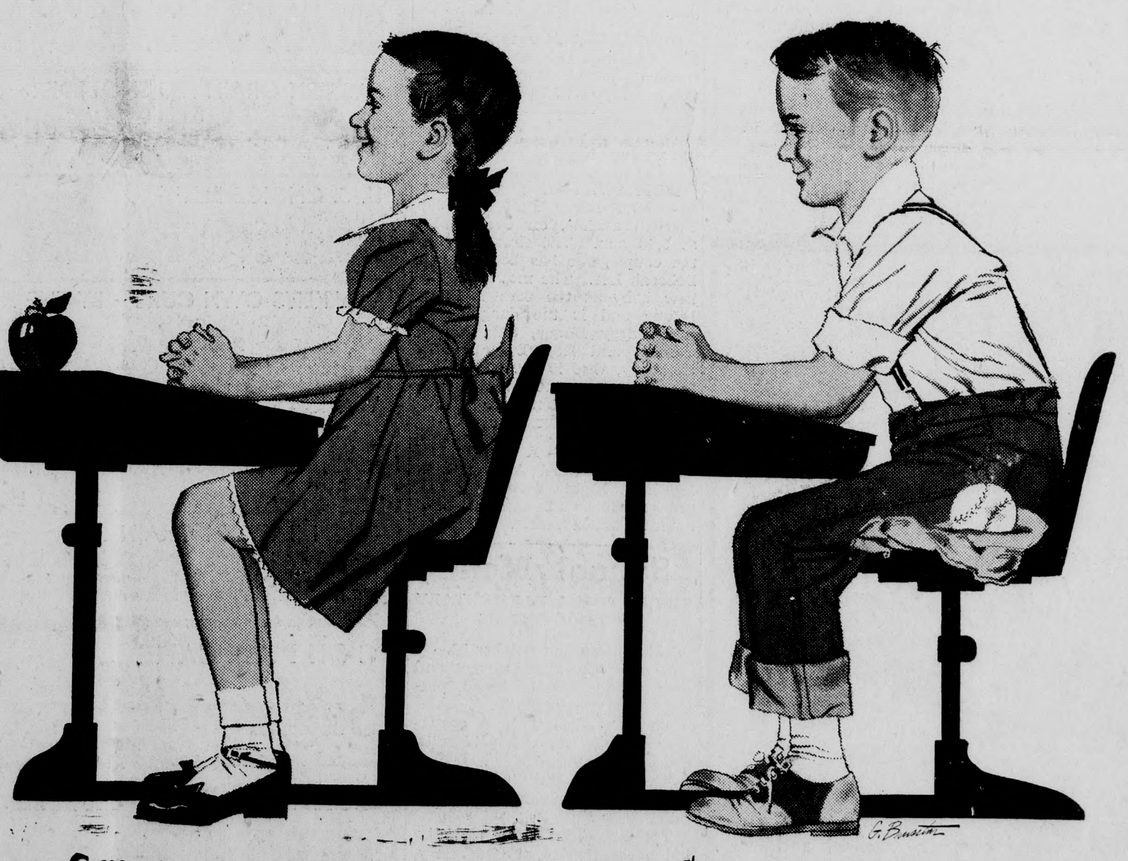

The growth of the industry over the years has meant the development of thousands of oil companies, large and small. All are needed—to serve you better, and keep the nation strong. As the industry progresses, the gain is yours... for your progress and oil progress go hand in hand.

170 Million dollars invested in their tomorrows!

Californians know that it takes money to educate today's youngsters for tomorrow's responsibilities—money for classrooms, libraries, playgrounds and other "tools of learning." A lot of this money comes from Bank of America through investment in school bonds. This financial support has helped create—in hundreds of California cities—the modern schools so vital to the development of today's children.

Everywhere in California the great resources of this bank are working for the development of communities like your own. Schools and other public buildings... streets... sewers... waterworks... municipal swimming pools and other civic improvements are being financed with many millions of Bank of America deposit dollars.

Here is statewide branch banking in action—working for you and your community, building ALL of California. Here is a banking service made possible only by progressive policies... vast resources... and statewide branch facilities.

Bank of America's bond portfolio includes about 450 school bond issues in addition to bonds for every other kind of municipal improvement.

Bank of America also lends to architects, contractors and manufacturers engaged in the important work of designing, building and equipping new schools and other public works.

Finals Are Nearing in Two Red Hill Tourneys

In the semi-finals, the two tournaments at Red Hill Country club are narrowing down to the finish and competition is becoming more keen.

Undefeated in the president's tournament are Kenneth Parkin, Marshall Moss, Fred Rohrs and Charles L. Kemp. Parkin and Moss meet each other while Rohrs and Kemp battle it out to see who gets into the final match and the right to receive the trophy from President Paul Stiker.

The other tourney is for the vice-president's trophy and the surviving quartet is Charles Warner; M. Chamberlain, Gil Carter, Sr., and Hugh Wolfe. Warner is scheduled to meet Chamberlain and Carter and Wolfe will putt it out.

The president's tournament is regarded as the top golf event on the Red Hill greens. At the outset the first 32 golfers in the qualifying rounds were placed in the president's tourney and the second bracket of 32 golfers went into the vice-president's event.

In the quarter-finals eight men faced each other. Parkin eliminated Ralph Arnold, 6 and 5, and Moss won over Phil Hunter 1 up. Rohrs got in by defeating M. K. Smith 5 and 3, and Kemp was handed his place through default by Sid Thomason.

140 Women Golfers Coming

One hundred and forty-four women will come to Red Hill on Friday, Oct. 19, to compete in the eastern division, women's Southern California Golf association team masters' event. Hostesses will be members of the Red Hill golf team, who will greet the visitors at 10 a.m. with coffee and rolls before the opening of competition.

Represented will be Redlands, Laguna Beach, Hacienda, Arrowhead of San Bernardino, Victoria of Riverside, and Santa Ana country clubs.

All three Red Hill women golf teams opened play in the Southern California league successfully last week at Hacienda country club. The A team defeated Laguna 5-4; while the B's and C's edged Victoria 7-2 and 6-3, respectively. Friday, Oct. 12, the A's competed with Santa Ana on the Laguna Beach course with Santa Ana winning 6 to 3. Mrs. Maurice O'Connor and Mrs. Page Hubble played third low net in the sweepstakes and Mrs. James Fisher third low net in the free.

Emergency Only Routine Matter

Some 1300 accident cases are received at the San Antonio Community hospital every year, according to Dr. A. A. Aita, the institution's head. The clinical laboratory and X-ray department offer services to patients from the community at large, and are operated on an "around the clock" basis.

"Unfortunately," said Dr. Aita, "many an accident, or illness, happens around midnight or in the wee small hours. We have to be ready, even if the patient is not."

Various arrangements for part or full payment of treatment on a charitable basis are in effect at San Antonio. Most outstanding is the sick baby fund whereby any child may be admitted and cared for without charge. This is sponsored by the Women's auxiliary and the community chest.

The Women's auxiliary has a membership representative of all women's organizations in the San Antonio Community hospital area. In addition, a receptacle for donations by visitors to the hospital is continually being filled with nickels, dimes and some folding money as word of the sick baby service spreads.

The rheumatic heart clinic is maintained by the Rheumatic Heart association and the community chest. In addition about $25,000 in free treatment is expended by the hospital.

Most important to the public at large is a cancer clinic where anyone can come, regardless of financial status, to have complete examination and diagnosis by a board of medical men expert in that field.

"Anyone worried about the possibility of a cancerous condition should take advantage of this service," Dr. Aita said.

Cancer clinics throughout the nation have done much to save lives through early discovery and treatment of the disease.

GIVE to the COMMUNITY CHEST

Fate of the Upland community chest and the welfare of six agencies is up to you -- Mr. and Mrs. Uplander.

We all recognize the importance of the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts. The Sick Baby fund fills a great need. The dental clinic and rheumatic heart clinic protect the health and even save lives of children. The Children's Hospital fund is desperately needed by some local youths. The Camper's Committee's funds provide money for very deserving children.

As one of Upland's long-established institutions, we strongly endorse the community chest and urge generous support of this worthy cause.

Seek Toll Service Telephone Raise

The old adage about the country needing a good five cent cigar may soon be expanded to include "a good five cent telephone call." The five cent piece is about to vanish altogether as a fair medium of exchange for telephone toll service.

The Associated Telephone Co., which serves the Upland area, as well as many other Southern California cities from Santa Barbara to San Bernardino, will seek permission to jump its pay station rate to 10 cents. This is according to an announcement given a general news release and okayed by Richard Sarg, manager for the local area.

Edwin Blakeslee, president of Associated, said:

"Ten cents for a pay station is in line with postwar prices for other services. And it is only reasonable that the pay station user should bear a proportionate share of the company's increased cost of doing business."

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., which also serves Southern California among other localities, was authorized by the state utilities commission Tuesday of last week to charge 10 cents for a pay station call, starting Nov. 1. Its current rate is 5 cents.

Blakeslee stated that the Associated company undoubtedly will seek authority to charge 10 cents for all calls originating from pay stations in its territory at the "appropriate" time.

LATEST NEWS FOR CITRUS GROWERS

Sunkist Exports hit new POSTWAR HIGH

Here's what the Exchange has done to help its growers through EXPORT SALES:

Before the war, foreign trade was free and California citrus could be exported to most European countries and throughout the Orient.

Now dollars abroad are scarce, and business is possible only through complicated financing, bartering and other difficult means.

Trade is possible, by such means, with Belgium, Holland, France, Sweden and Switzerland.

The big prewar market in Britain has not re-opened due to dollar shortages. Although similarly restricted, the markets in the Philippines, Hong Kong and Singapore have been favorably developed. The Shanghai market for North China has been lost.

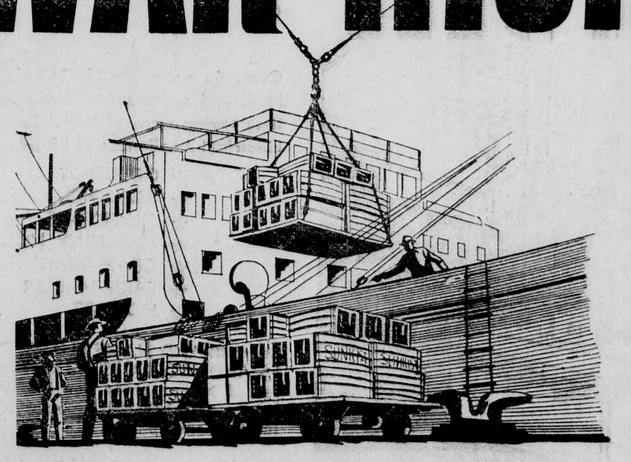

Yet, the Exchange has built up export sales for the current season of almost two and a half million boxes of all varieties of citrus fruit. In boxes, this is the second largest volume of all time. In dollars, it is the largest.

This is good business. It is "extra business" for the grower — there is no prorate on exports. Furthermore, the sales effort is directed toward exporting sizes that are in surplus, thus making for a greater over-all return to the grower.

And, of course, by developing these overseas outlets, and removing nearly two and a half million boxes of fruit from the domestic market, demand and prices are strengthened here at home.

Exchange efforts created these sales

Rebuilding of Exchange export business since the war has come about only through persistent Exchange sales effort in each foreign market. This has required full knowledge of each market and the confidence of the importing trade.

Exchange service, Sunkist quality and Sunkist reputation have been successful. The Sunkist brand is advertised in all foreign markets where fruit is sold.

What this means to you

The export program is just one more evidence of the aggressive attitude you'll find throughout the Exchange organization. And it's one of the reasons why Exchange houses are showing consistently higher returns than other packing houses.

Why not take advantage of Exchange efficiency and aggressiveness yourself by affiliating with an Exchange house at this time? It should mean a better return for you next year and in years to come.

Newlyweds Are Making Home In San Bernardino

Following a honeymoon spent in San Diego, Mexico and Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. Robert LeRoy Marlow are making their home in San Bernardino. They exchanged double-ring vows in Haldeman House, Alta Loma, on September 23, with Dr. Rufus D. Oakey, Presbyterian minister, officiating. Some 75 relatives and friends witnessed the rites.

The bride is the former Catherine Santolucito, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Santolucito, 262 North Laurel avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edward Marlow of Highland.

Given in Marriage by her father, the bride wore a navy blue dress suit of faille, trimmed in white, and a small white hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, lace flower and bouvardia backed by pink maline.

Attending the bride at matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. John A. Santolucito of Davis, who was attired in navy blue with blue accessories, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and blue delphinium. Her husband served the bridegroom as best man.

Music for the reception, which followed the ceremony, was provided by Gary Santolucito, brother of the bride, accordionist, and Bobby Ferrett, her cousin, clarinetist. Mrs. J. S. Santolucito of Highland, aunt of the bride, served the cake, while Mrs. T. L. Daniel and Mrs. E. E. Crandall, sisters of the bridegroom, poured.
